

Samsó 74 anys 2018

"Warm, sincere and gently rustic", like Anton, previous vine grower of the vineyard where this wine comes from. Its smell is that of a walk through the vineyards. A single-vineyard wine of Carignan, locally known as Samsó. Produced with selected grapes from the vines that grow in a slope in Bellmunt del Priorat municipality. A pure expression of this Priorat's local variety.

Intense and mouthful, with ripe red fruits and mineral hints.

Samsó

Slate soil (Slate of the Carboniferous period).

Uncertified organic farming.

14'7% Alch. Vol with 5'5 TTA and 3'4 pH.

Long ageing potential. It has all the conditions to stay alive and improve for at least the next 25 years.

Nothing works better with our classic "Fricandó".
